When the worries of life come into our hearts,
we are basically forgetting that God is the giver of all good things.
In Him we live and breathe and have our being.
When you begin to meditate on that, things in our lives start to come alive.
Gray sky has the promise of sunny morning.
Sickness is no longer our concern,
because God is the only one who can give us life.
Even death has the promised hope of resurrection.
No matter what problem faces our ways, we can declare before the enemy, "I will live!"
